Petition to call a Constitutional Convention

Petition summary and background

Whereas laws being passed by Congress's consisting largely of lawyers appear to be biased towards big business and special interest groups, and indifferent towards the general public; there is reason to believe it is in the best interest of the country to prohibit anyone with a degree in the law from holding elected office in Congress, or that of the president of the united states of America.

Action petitioned for

We, the undersigned, are concerned citizens who urge our leaders to act now call for a Constitutional Convention to amend the Constitution to prohibit anyone holding a degree in law from holding a federally elected office in either Congress or that of president of the United States of America
